

Théâtre dans le cimetière
Theatre in the cemetery

Wednesday, June 30, 2010

Theatre in the cemetery is proud to be back for its 11th season!

Since the launch of “Theatre in the Cemetery” in 2000, more than 25,000 people have experienced our theatrical productions. In the summer of 2010, 150 performances of our two shows will play to nearly 3,000 spectators comprised of international and local tourists as well as residents of our great city.

Follow us In Riel's Footsteps as we guide you through the Saint-Boniface Cathedral cemetery, one of the oldest in the city, while re-enacting tales of Manitoba, French and Metis history. See Manitoba history literally come to life!

Then, come visit us at night with Chasse galerie a well-known québécois folklore legend. Two young voyageurs want to see their girlfriends hundreds of miles away. Their only solution: make a deal with the Devil – and fly all the way to their beloved in a magical flying canoe. Come see if these two young men have sold their souls to the Devil...

Five colourful actors, (Keith Damboise, Lacina Dembélé, Megan Friesen, Miguel Gauthier and Kimberley Ritchie) will enchant you with their colourful performances.
